

ANN ARBOR FIBERARTS GUILD MEETING MINUTES

October 14, 2019

President - Anne Flora called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. She invited all who participated in the leather workshop to show their purses.

Treasurer - Teresa Garland reported the budget in good shape and on track for the year. Details are on the website. To date, we have $1,500 in the Ellen Willson education fund. Next month will be a sale of more items from her estate.

Holiday Sale - Barb Schutzgruber passed around volunteer sign-up sheets. The sale is Saturday, November 9 from 10 a.m.— 4 p.m. Post cards are available for distribution.

Workshops - Sharon McKenna reminded us that there are still spaces in the Ann Loveless workshop on November 23, for $100. Contact her if interested.

Exhibits - Cindy Harris and Anne MacKinnon reported that there are 36 pieces scheduled for the Cherry Hill exhibit, which will be open October 29 through Nov. 25, 2019. There will be an artists' reception on November 6, from 7 p.m. — 9 p.m. Everyone invited.

Jury - Susan Widawski reported everything on track at this point. Information on jurying is on the website.

Membership - Elizabeth Walther introduced the four new members and five guests.

Publicity - Marla Smith reminded us that there will be an ad in the Observer in November for the Holiday Sale.

Facebook/Website - Liz Ritter reminded us that the password for the member section of the website will change on October 30. The new password is on the back of your membership card. Updates are due to Mary Valerie Richter by October 20.

MLH- Nancy Hedberg reminded us that the workshops for the spring conference are on the website.

Program - Sharon McKenna introduced Brenda Geiger for a lecture on "Turning Leather Into Accessories."

Respectfully submitted,
Jan Frank, Secretary
