

ANN ARBOR FIBERARTS GUILD MEETING MINUTES

February 10, 2020

Vice President - Carol Fleischer called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. Membership was reminded that the application for the Professional Development Award is due March 1, 2020. Send the application to Anne Flora either via email or snail mail. (aflora@umich.edu or 210 West Chicago Blvd. Tecumseh, MI 49286)

Treasurer - Teresa Garland reported the budget in good shape with over $14,000 in checking, $18,000 in a money market, $1,100 in the FAN distribution, and $6,000 in Ellen's fund. Details are on the website.

Exhibits - Cindy Harris reminded members that the Power Center show is in April. The jury dates will be on the website.

Fiber Feast - Sharon McKenna is looking for spectacular garments for the show on Saturday, April 18. There will be no Fiber Feast in 2021 as the building at WCC will be under construction. A sign up for help with sales was passed around. Less than 100 tickets have been sold, so members need to help get the word out.

Programs - Sharon McKenna reported that the weaving workshop in March is filled. Karen Turckes' workshop on fabric manipulation is in May and samples were available for viewing.

Warped Weavers - Audra Wenzlow reminded members that the group meets the Sunday after our regular AAFG meeting. The meeting in February is at the downtown Ann Arbor Library from 1-3p.m. Information sheets on the group were available.

Membership - Trish Ritchie welcomed one guest.

MLH Rep - Nancy Hedberg reminded members that the registration is open for the MLH conference June 5-7. Some workshops are already filling up.

Reports - Mary Valerie Richter and Jan Frank reported on their use of the Professional Development award in 2019.

The meeting program was led by Terrie Voigt. Members formed various fiber technique groups to discussed and shared work.

Respectfully Submitted, Jan Frank, Secretary
