

ANN ARBOR FIBERARTS GUILD MEETING MINUTES

March 9, 2020

President - Anne Flora called the meeting to order at 7:05 p.m.

- Audra Wenzlow and Sharon Weltner were announced the Professional Development winners for 2020.
- April meeting will be elections for Vice President/President Elect and Vice President/Programs. Nominated are Anjanette Bunce for VP/President Elect and Sharon McKenna for VP/Programs. Additional nominations will be taken from the floor.
- The proposed change in the By-laws (VI. E) will also be voted on. The change has been sent to members and Flora read the proposed.

Treasurer - No Report. Recent report on website.

Programs/Workshops - Sharon McKenna reported a successful March workshop with 14 attendees. Registration is still being taken for the May workshop.

Fiber Feast - Sharon McKenna reported 143 tickets sold; down a bit. At this time the Feast is still planned, while watching the few advisories.

Exhibits - Cindy Harris reminded us that the jury for the Power Center Show will be Friday, March 13. Cindy and Anne will hang the show on Tuesday, March 17. If you would like to help, be at the Power Center around 11:30 a.m. - 11:45 a.m. The exhibit at the Theater Gallery at Cherry Hill will be in July. Details will be on the website later this spring.

Warped Weavers - Anjanette Bunce invited weavers to the meeting on Sunday, March 15, at the Ann Arbor downtown library, from 1-3 p.m. The topic is finishing.

Jury - Fiber Feast jury, for the runway, will be March 22 at Barb Schutzgruber's. Please call if you need to drop items off at another time.

Library - Amy Cameron reminded members that the library is open from 6-7 p.m. on meeting nights.

Membership - Trish Richie introduced 5 guests.

MLH - Betsy Szymanski reminded us that registration is open for the June 5-7 conference at Hope College. April 15 is the deadline. Also, Learning Grants are available through MLH for workshops and conferences. The MLH Show will be at the Lowell Arts Center June 22-August 15. All fiber art and functional art, made in the last two years, is accepted. Maximum size is 62" on either side. The deadline is May 25. Check the website mlhguild.org for details. While there also look at the member gallery and trading post.

Program - Mary Underwood introduced Kelly Marshall, who gave a program on "Weaving by Design."

Respectfully submitted,
Jan Frank, Secretary
