

AAFG Membership Meeting
October 11, 2021

6:30-7:00 p.m. was available for social conversation in person or by Zoom.

Carol called the meeting to order at 7:02 p.m. She welcomed all to the meeting and then introduced Barb.

Barb Schutzgruber introduced our presenter for the evening, Daryl Lancaster.

Daryl gave her presentation, "Color and Inspiration". Members will receive a copy of her slide deck and resources. Please be respectful of copyright and not share this document with others outside our Guild.

After the presentation and a Q&A period, Carol read the following announcements:

- Reminder! The guest password for the website will end October 31. You will need to set up your own password. Liz Ritter can assist you if you need help.
- Upcoming Programs:
 - Nov. 8 Dawn Edwards - "Eco Printing: Releasing Nature's Secrets" (this will be a Zoom presentation which you can watch from home or with others at Zion)
 - Dec. 13 Jennifer Lee Morrow – "All Is Not As It Seems: Alchemy, Tinkering, and Stitching" (this will be a Zoom presentation which you can watch from home or with others at Zion)
 - January 10 Katherine Tilton – "A Hand Made Tale" (this will be a Zoom presentation with no gathering at Zion).

Breakout sessions on Zoom were done so attendees could chat with one another. 57 participants attended the evening's meeting. This includes 10 participants at Zion.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:50 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Sue McDowell
