Location: Washtenaw Community College

Morris Lawrence Building, 4800 East Huron River Drive, Ann Arbor, MI 48105

Seller Eligibility:

- 2021-2022 AAFG membership dues are paid in full by March 15, 2022, and 2022-2023 dues are in good standing.
- Previously volunteered at one AAFG sale (Holiday or Fiber Feast)
- Paid a non-refundable $10 commitment fee to AAFG by October 31, 2022
- all items for sale accepted the current 3-year jury cycle (dates TBA)

Jury Dates: TBA

Commission: AAFG retains a 20% commission for all sales*, and collects and pays the MI sales tax due.

*Note: Early removal of inventory will result in a 40% commission assessment.

Seller Time Commitment: 1-2 days

Set-up: 2 days (Friday and Saturday) – Display items are picked up on Friday; set-up begins on Friday evening or early Saturday morning depending on if we are able to secure the space the evening prior to the sale.

Break-down: Saturday evening, directly after closing. Display items are returned to storage unit immediately after the show. At the end of the show, all sellers must assist with the breakdown of displays, the loading of the trailer, and cleaning up the sales floor and the break room.

This a program fund raiser for our Guild. All members are encouraged to participate.

Seller and Volunteer Jobs Include:

- storage unit team
- models
- floor security
- members to demonstrate fiber art techniques
