

The Power Center Show – University of Michigan

121 Fletcher Street, Ann Arbor, MI 48109

The Power Center Show is an annual exhibit of artwork created by our Guild members. The show is hung in the lobby, where audience members gather and mingle before performances and during intermissions. Work may be viewed anytime the Power Center is offering a concert or performance. The lobby opens a half-hour prior to a performance, and you do not need a ticket to enter the lobby. Power Center is a wonderful venue for large 2D pieces (2' x 2' minimum). The next exhibit opportunity is 2021.
